23rd Annual McGill Pain Day

A Day for Health Care Professionals and Trainees in the Treatment and Study of Pain

24.01.19
Thursday January 2019

McGill Residence Hall
3625 Avenue du Parc, Montreal

Register Online by January 11, 2019
A PDF of your poster must be e-mailed to paindaymcgill@gmail.com

Events:

2:00-3:00 P.M. Trainees’ Workshop: “Is there a problem translating basic science to patients?” Leaders: Anthony Dickenson & Jeffrey Mogil

3:00-5:30 P.M. Poster Session, Hors d’oeuvres & Wine

5:30-6:00 P.M. Poster Prizes & Introductory Remarks

6:00-7:00 P.M. Plenary Lecture

“What makes up the experience of pain?”

Dr. Anthony Dickenson
Professor of Neuropharmacology
University College of London (UCL)

The program is organized by the Alan Edwards Centre for Research on Pain and the McGill Department of Anesthesia. Sponsored by the Louise and Alan Edwards Foundation.

Prizes for Best Trainee Presentations will be given by the Quebec Pain Research Network.